SUPPLETORY DEED OF TRUST

TO

CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the Cedar Rapids, Iowa Falls and Northwestern Railway Company did, on the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, execute to the Central Trust Company of New York, its certain mortgage or deed of trust by which it intended to convey to said Central Trust Company its railway extending from Holland, in the State of Iowa, to Worthington, in the State of Minnesota, including the main line and all branches which had been or should thereafter be extended therefrom, to secure a series of bonds in said mortgage described; that a question has been raised as to whether said mortgage is sufficiently explicit in description to convey the branches which should be constructed, or otherwise acquired, extending from said main line; and that upon the attention of the stockholders of said company being called to said doubt, they, by resolutions duly passed, did authorize the President and Secretary of said

Company, over its corporate seal, attested by their official signatures, to execute and deliver to said Trust Company a deed which should, by way of further assurance, declare the intention of said Company in the execution of said mortgage or deed of trust, as above expressed, to convey to said Central Trust Company of New York, all branches of its railway which have been or shall be, by it, constructed or acquired, and extending from its main line between the towns of Holland, in the State of Iowa, and Worthington, in the State of Minnesota, for the purposes of the trust created by said mortgage or deed of trust.

THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises, and for the further assurance of the rights, estates and interests granted in, and with regard to the property intended to be conveyed by said mortgage, the said Cedar Rapids, Iowa Falls, and Northwestern Railway Company does, by these presents, bargain, sell, and convey unto the Central Trust Company of New York, all branch railways, with all rights, franchises, privileges and property appurtenant thereto, which have been or shall be hereafter constructed or acquired by it, extending from its main line between the towns of Holland, in the State of Iowa, and Worthington, in the State of Minnesota, to have and to hold the same for the uses and trusts set out and expressed in the certain deed of trust or mortgage executed by said Railway Company to said Central Trust Company of New York, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, upon the conditions that the rights, estates and interests thereby granted and conveyed shall be enforced as if granted and conveyed by said mortgage or deed of trust, and shall become void and of no effect when said mortgage or deed of trust shall cease to be valid and effective.

Provided, however, that such deed of trust or mortgage and this deed shall not in any case be so construed as to convey to said Trust Company any rights, estates or interests in any property, real, personal or mixed, conveyed by said Railway Company to said Trust Company by the deed of trust or mortgage bearing date the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Cedar Rapids, Iowa Falls and Northwestern Railway Company has caused its corporate seal to be impressed hereon, and attested by the signatures of its President and Secretary
